GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Comfort in Growling about a Very Small Matter.

New York, Nov. 3.—The Star says general condemnation was expressed by democrats and liberal republicans in the seventh assembly district yesterday when the fact became known that Major-General McDowell had registered falsely and consequently voted where he had no right to. The inspector of registration of the 7th district says that McDowell was challenged and swore his vote in, registered as from No. 10 West Ninth street, a house now occupied by Mr. B. Gould, who stated that McDowell had not lived there for two or three years. He owns and rents the house to Gould. The hotel register shows that he stopped at the Fifth Avenue House with his wife October 22d.

How Garfield Received the News.

New York, Wednesday A. M.—A newspaper extra says that Dowd is probably elected Mayor. But it is still doubtful. A special from Mentor, O., says Garfield received the news at his home in company with a few friends, without any excitement, and was at first incredulous when reports are claiming New York. After reading another dispatch from the empire State, Garfield expressed an opinion for the first time. Said he: "Friends, if we get New York, as the indications are we will, we can give them the entire Pacific Coast, New Jersey and Connecticut and the solid South, and beat them." Even as he said this there was no particular excitement in his manner. He was, one of his neighbors said, the coolest man in the lot last night. The appended message was hailed with cheers: "James A. Garfield—Republicans of New York City assembled in meeting at Chickering Hall send their most hearty congratulations to the President-elect, and assure him of the handsome majority in the State of over 40,000! Down goes ..." From this the President-elect felt more assured himself. He said, after one of the most cheering dispatches: "Gentlemen, this result means two things. First, that the American people believe in the nationality of the government; Second, that they believe in a good, honest, healthy financial policy. Third, that they are determined not to longer disgrace the sphere of American politics by making a campaign of personal abuse."

Garfield Congratulated by Oberlin College.

Oberlin, Nov. 3.—Gen. Garfield was congratulated to-day by the faculty and students of Oberlin college. He said: "I do not wish to be unduly impressible or superstitious, but though we have outlived the days of the augurs, I think we have a right to look at some events as omens, and I greet this happy and auspicious omen that the first congratulation since the event of yesterday is tendered to me by this venerable institution of learning. I am glad to be greeted here to-day by the active scholarship of Ohio, and I know of no place where scholarship has touched upon the nerve of public life so effectually as Oberlin. For this reason I am specially grateful for this greeting from the faculty and the students of Oberlin college and its venerable and venerated president. And the significance of yesterday's event may well be all the more significant for being immediately endorsed by the scholarship and culture of this state."

New London Comment.

London, Nov. 3.—The old banker paper, the Standard, declares that reform will be abandoned in republican politics and, that the old senatorial ring will be all the masters, yet it concedes in the same breath that Garfield's administration will be a continuation of that of Hayes in every respect. It also says the election shows it is impossible to excite in the north any anti-southern feeling, and makes other comments.

Procession Attacked.

New York, Nov. 3.—Rejoicing republicans parading the village of Flushing early this morning, were assaulted by democrats with sticks and stones. The attacking party was routed, one of them being fatally and several seriously injured. A number of republicans were wounded.

Election Row.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—Democrat special from Lexington, Miss., reports the killing of J. W. Ashley by J. S. Lockhard, and the mortal wounding of C. M. Hall, editor of the Holmes county Times, in an election row.

Clearing House Transactions.

New York, Nov. 3.—The Public gives the following clearing house exchange transactions for the week compared with the same week last year. New York has lost 9.3 per cent.; Boston, 4.4; Philadelphia, Baltimore, 12.1 San Francisco, Milwaukee; Kansas City, 17.7; Cleveland. The following have gained: Chicago, 8.1; Cincinnati, 21; St. Louis, 14.3; New Orleans, 22.4; Pittsburg; Louisville, 21.5; Providence, 25.6; Indianapolis; New Haven, 18; Lowell, 35.4; Syracuse. The Public comments thus: Public attention in all parts of the country has been so engrossed by the political contest that business has been comparatively inactive during the last week and has certainly been considerably affected during the month. Speculation in stocks has been active, at times having unusual proportions, the other exchanges are not materially larger than they were in 1879. The fact that they have been so large in spite the political excitement that they compare favorably with the most active months ... notwithstanding some decline in prices and a remarkable volume of business and gives evidence that the removal of political uncertainty must be followed by a period of great activity. In one respect the business of October has been much more satisfactory than that of 1879. Then a large proportion of transactions were speculative, prompted by an unusual advance in prices. The collapse of speculation came quickly and then it became apparent that much of the seeming increase in business had been unwholesome and unsound. This year there has been but little speculative excitement except in stocks, and the prices for commodities and, the prices of them have not been so affected as to mischievously disturb the normal relations of supply and demand. In business seems to be much more healthy than it was a year ago, and the volume of business is distinctly legitimate and healthy in character and larger.

Silver Drift.

Washington, Nov. 3.—During October more than two and one-half millions of standard silver dollars were put into circulation. Of this amount ... went into Texas. $2,067,500 of the three and a half millions was sent from the New Orleans mint, and $1,311,500 from the mint at Philadelphia.

A Crazy Freak.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Yesterday a bright boy four years old, was found lying near the railway track on the Rock Island road, his head between two stones and a heavy railway tie across his neck, holding him fast. When discovered he was black in the face, insensible and unable to walk or talk. Subsequently he was revived and told the remarkable story that he was induced by a woman who lived near to go with her on the promise of candy. On the way she bought him a hoop, saying, "he would never need it again." At the lake the woman endeavored to persuade him to get into a boat, but he refused because there was water in the bottom and he was afraid of a whipping if his clothes got wet. The woman then took him to the place where he was afterwards found, threw him on the ground and placed the tie across his neck and left him to perish. It is supposed that the woman was insane and had no settled home.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

English View of the Election.

London, Nov. 3.—The Pall Mall Gazette this evening says: "It would be a mistake to regard General Garfield's election as a triumph of the politicians who would discredit on Gen. Grant. The strong vote of the United States in favor of the honest financial policy of the present cabinet will be ... and showed more than General Garfield to the principles laid down by Mr. Hayes. For England the result is satisfactory, as it resulted to a party which is most inclined to ... friendly relations between England and America."

Land League Agitators.

Dublin, Nov. 3.—McNally, one of the agitators indicted for conspiracy, in a speech near Tuam Monday, advocated the use of dynamite and ... The land leaguers ... Parnell's tone is also more threatening. The land league meets to-day to consider the action to be taken for the defense of those indicted.

Dublin, Nov. 3.—T. D. Sullivan, Sexton and Egan received summons ordering the accused to appear on Friday before the court of the queen's bench. Brennan and O'Sullivan also received summons to appear before the court of the queen's bench.

It is said ... maintains that several of those included in the indictment for conspiracy never were members of the league. Boyton is a naturalized American.

Police in Dublin at a late hour last night, ... watched by a detective. ... The Express, protestant, discussing the ... members of the land league, says if the government play with this matter for a few months there will be an armed rising.

Parnell Arrested.

London, Nov. 3.—Parnell has been served with a copy of the indictment and information against him by a police officer at the Imperial hotel in this city. ... one of the defendants, charged in the ..., is seriously ill.

London, Nov. 3.—Rowell is 12 miles ahead of Dobler ... O'Leary challenged the winner.

The Prussian Budget.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Herr Bitter, minister of finance, in presenting the Prussian budget said that the last financial year showed a deficit necessitating a loan of ... The estimates for next year had been balanced, and that last year showed a surplus of 4,500,000 marks, ... will be devoted to reducing ... of taxes. Herr Bitter ... ordinary ... taxes on ... and ... bourses.

Steamer Lost.

London, Nov. 3.—The coasting steamer Eleanor, with 15 persons, were lost in the recent gale.

The Astley Belt Contest.

London, Nov. 3.—At 5:30 Rowell's score was 315, Littlewood 290, Howard 289. Rowell is thus 25 miles ahead of the fastest time on record, and Dobler nearly 11 miles. Rowell's time for 315 miles was 62 hours 7 minutes.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

A Revolution.

Panama, Nov. 3.—A successful revolution broke out against the government of Venezuela.

Hartford, Conn.—P. T. Barnum, rep., is defeated for state senate. The senate stands 18 reps., and 5 dems.

New York.

New York, Nov. 3.—City vote, except 28 districts, gives republicans 78,556; democrats, 117,669. The democratic majority will be about 34,000.

New York City.—Hancock's majority, with 15 districts to hear from, 42,553. Legislature largely republican.

New York City.—Grace's majority with 20 districts to hear from, 3293.

New York.—The city elects to the assembly 18 democrats and six republicans. Late returns show the vote on mayoralty as follows: Grace, dem., 98,031, Dowd, rep., 90,748. Grace's majority 7283, forty-five election districts wanting. Vote for register: Docharty, dem. 101,211, Hess, rep. 93,521; Docharty's majority 7720; fifteen election districts are wanting. It was thought that the republicans might capture these two offices.

New York, Nov. 3.—The democrats have carried three congressional districts in Brooklyn, and have elected nine out of twelve assemblymen.

New York.—Kings county, Brooklyn, gives Hancock 9979 majority.

Latest.—Presidential vote complete, Hancock, 123,102; Garfield, 81,72-.

The Times says the republicans have carried the state by 25,000 majority, and gives a table of all the counties, showing Garfield's total majorities, 85,201; Hancock's 60,946. Republican gain over 1876 is stated at 58,143. The Times also gives the list of members elected to the 47th congress as far as ascertained and divides them politically as follows: Republicans, 150; democrats, 132; greenbacks, 5.

Chicago.—The Inter-Ocean estimates of the next house of representatives is the same as the New York Times.

New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 3.—Both parties agree that Ludlow, democrat, is elected governor, the democratic state committee by from 900 to 1200 and the republican committee by from 640 to 800. The state committees of both parties admit that the republicans have a majority in the senate of 2 members, and in the house of 20 members. Republicans have 34. The congressional delegation stands the same as last year.

Newark, N. J.—Returns very incomplete from the state, probably Hancock has a diminished majority but the latest returns encourage the republicans who claim the governor and have elected 4 out of 7 congressmen. There is a certainty of U. S. senator elected by republicans from New Jersey.

Newark, N. J.—Returns indicate that the democrats carry the state by 6000.

Paterson, N. J.—Passaic county gives a republican majority of between 1200 and 1400, against 371 for Hayes. Miles Ross is elected by 5703 majority for congress.

Trenton, N. J.—Returns are so incomplete that it is impossible to give Hancock's majority in this state, but it will not reach 5000.

Jersey City, N. J.—Senator Hobart, chairman of the New Jersey state republican executive committee says he has positive information that Potts is elected governor by a majority of 400 but concedes that the democratic electors have carried the state by a small majority. Other republicans say the governorship is still in doubt, while the dems. claim it by one thousand majority for Ludlow. The legislature is republican on joint ballot.

Jersey City.—Secretary of state of New Jersey says he has returns which show the election of the democratic electoral ticket by 1500 majority, and Ludlow, democrat, for governor, by a majority not less than 600.

Delaware.

Wilmington, Del.—Returns indicate that Delaware has gone democratic by 500 majority.

Wilmington, Del.—Returns from all election districts in the state except two in Kent county, majorities of which are estimated upon the vote at election last September, show a democratic majority of 1015. Two-thirds of the legislature are democratic, insuring the return of Bayard to the senate. Republicans elect their whole ticket in New Castle county by a majority of about 150.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia.—Garfield's majority in 61 out of 67 counties, is 25,680. Five of the remaining counties gave 3131 majority for Hayes, 1876, and the 6th Lackawanna was not then in existence. Garfield's majority in the state will be about 30,000.

Philadelphia.—In the 19th district Campbell beats Coffroth, dem., present member of congress. Curtin, dem., is elected for congress by 1000 majority.

Total vote in Philadelphia (estimated), 96,794; Hancock, 76,067; Weaver, 61; Dow, 45. Republican plurality, 20,727. For auditor, General Fitton, republican, 18,257 plurality. Judge supreme court, Green, republican, 22,2-4 plurality. Republican city ticket is elected by at least 18,000 majority.

Philadelphia.—Randall's majority is 2735. The city complete gives a republican majority of 22,278, republican gain of 73.

Philadelphia.—In the 20th congressional district Alvin Curtin, dem., is elected; W. S. Mullenberger elected in the 24th district.

Philadelphia.—Official returns and corrected estimates of the vote of this state, received to-day, increases Garfield's majority about 1060 over the estimate telegraphed this morning. The Pennsylvania congressional delegation in 47th congress will stand as follows: First district, Henry H. Bingham, rep.; second, Charles O'Neil, rep.; third, Samuel J. Randall, dem.; fourth, Wm. D. Kelly, rep.; fifth, Alfred C. Harmer, rep.; sixth, Wm. Ward, rep.; seventh, Wm. Godshalk, rep.; eighth, Daniel Ermentrout, dem.; ninth, A. Herr Smith, rep.; tenth, Wm. Mutchler, dem.; eleventh, Robert Klotz, dem.; twelfth, Joseph A. Scranton, republican; thirteenth, John H. Ryon, democrat; fourteenth, Samuel T. Barr, rep.; 15th, C. C. Jadwin, rep.; 16th, will require official vote to decide; 17th, J. M. Campbell, rep.; 18th, Horatio G. Fisher, rep.; 19th, F. E. Beltzhoover, dem.; 20th, A. G. Curtin, dem.; 21st, Morgan R. Wise, dem.; 22d, Russell E. Errett, rep.; 23d, Thomas M. Bayne, rep.; 24th, W. C. Shallenberger, rep.; 25th, Harry White, rep.; 26th, S. H. Miller, rep.; 27th, Lewis F. Watson, rep.

Hartford, Conn.—Total vote of Connecticut, lacking the small town of Hamden, is 131,913 for president and 131,689 for governor. Garfield received 66,-; Hancock 64,046, Weaver 844, Dow 535. Garfield's plurality 2618. Bigelow, rep. majority for governor 1138 and his plurality, 2368. The legislature will stand 16 republicans to 5 democrats in the senate and 155 republicans to 83 democrats, 1 independent and 1 greenback in the house. Republican majority on joint ballot, 91, last year it was 90.

Maryland.

Baltimore.—Congressional delegation unchanged. Hancock's majority in the state is 15,000.

Baltimore, Md. Wicomico county gives a democratic majority of 650, a republican gain of 402. Frederick county gives a republican majority of 1500; republican gain, 200.

Virginia.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 3.—Returns this morning from several precincts in Sussex and Greenville counties give republicans large majorities.

Richmond, Va.—The largest vote ever polled in east in Virginia. The regular democratic electoral ticket has swept the state by a large majority. Dezendorf, rep., is elected in the second and Jorgensen, rep., in the fourth district. There is a close contest in the fifth between Cabell, dem. and Stovall, readjuster, and in the ninth between Trigg, dem. and Fulkerson, readjuster, with probabilities favoring readjusters.

Staunton, Va.—Paul, readjuster, is elected to congress over Allen, regular democrat, in seventh district by 1000 majority.

Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss.—Reports from 50 counties, towns and precincts give Hancock 15,225, Garfield 4,...; Returns from the 1st, 2d, 4th and 5th congressional districts indicate the election of democrats in each by a decided majority. Returns from the 6th congressional district are meagre and not sufficient at ... to base an estimate, but Chalmers leads as far as heard from.

North Carolina.

Charlotte, N. C.—The democratic majority in Mecklenburg county will not exceed 100, a loss of 500 on the vote of 1876. Democrats lose in nearly every county.

South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C.—Fourth congressional district in doubt. Hancock's majority about 40,000 in the state.

Columbia, S. C.—Report of election in the city is as follows: Democratic majority in the city, 612; democratic majority in Richland county, 454. The Daily Register says the state is sure for Hancock.

Florida.

Florida elects democratic governor, congressman and legislature.

Louisiana.

New Orleans.—Democrats elect all but one congressman in the third district. Democratic majority in the state is from 25,000 to 30,000. Vote decreased. The Wooster parish negroes became very excited over the Chinese question and voted solidly for Hancock. In consequence the election was peaceful.

New Orleans.—Congressman Acklen arrived this evening from the third congressional district. He concedes the election of Darrell, rep., by from 300 to 1500; republican gain.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn.—City and county carried for Hancock. Republicans carry the county for governor, and their entire legislative ticket. The result over the state is still in doubt between Hawkins, republican for governor, and Wright, state credit democrat, and the complexion of the general assembly is still doubtful as between democrats and republicans, but the repudiation delegation in the legislature will be insignificant.

Nashville, Tenn.—Partial returns from 34 counties give Wright 25,1-7; Hawkins 25,178; Wilson 12,522. Wilson will beat Wright 10,000 in middle Tennessee but is far behind in east and west Tennessee. The race for governor is really Wright, Fussell, dem., and Hawkins, rep. The republicans have elected 10 members of the legislature in Shelby county and probably 6 in Davidson and it is thought they will have control of the legislature, thus securing a U. S. senator and state officers.

Wright's majority in Davidson county over Wilson is 2500, which is about equal to Hawkins'. It is thought the latter is elected.

West Virginia.

Wheeling.—Republican gain over October.

Wheeling.—State about the same as in October. Hancock's plurality 11,000 to 12,000; majority 5000 to 6000. Kenna and Hoge, democrats in 3d and 2d districts are elected to congress, but the 1st will require an official count. The republican state central committee claims Hutchinson elected by 100 or more and many democrats concede the claim.

Ohio.

Columbus.—Republicans gained 459 and carried the city. Democrats carry the county by heavily reduced majority. Democrats accept the overwhelming result gracefully.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Vote of 534 precincts: Garfield, 109,712; Hancock, 88,904; Weaver, 5077. This is 40 per cent of the vote of the state, and shows a net republican gain of 665.

Indianapolis, Ind.—550 places show a republican gain of 445; democratic loss, 211; net republican gain, 619.

Indianapolis.—State republican majority probably not over 8000.

Terre Haute, Ind.—The vote of this city is all in. Garfield, 2861; Hancock, 2420; Weaver, 312. At the October election Porter received 2914; Landers, 2466; Gregg, 347. A republican gain of 15.

Indianapolis.—Returns from six hundred and sixty-three voting places in the state give Garfield 137,820; Hancock 114,231, Weaver 6411. Total 258,463, an increased vote of 69. Rep. gains 540; dem. gains 30, net rep. gains 510, national loss 517. City shows 320 net rep. gains.

Indianapolis.—697 voting places which cast nearly 58 per cent of the vote in October, show net republican gain of 505.

Indianapolis.—Returns from 28 counties complete republican majority, 3030; democratic majority 5889; republican gain 1345; democratic gain 738; net republican gain 510.

Indianapolis.—Seventy-seven counties complete, show a republican gain of 370.

Illinois.

Chicago.—Returns from the city complete, give a total vote of 81,000, of which Garfield had 42,484 and Hancock, 37,713. Republican majority, 4771. In the county, Garfield had 54,312; Hancock, 43,572. Republican majority 10,740. This is a republican gain in the county of over 11,000, as compared with the election of 1876, and a republican gain of about 10,000 in the city. The vote in both city and county was the largest by 6000 ever cast. Weaver's vote was insignificant. Returns on congressmen are somewhat scanty, but it is likely that Farwell and Aldrich will be returned.

Chicago.—Returns have been received from half of the state of Illinois but a comparison has been made with only 227 towns and precincts outside of Chicago. Those show a net republican gain of 2685. At the same rate in the rest of the state the plurality in the state for Garfield will be about 44,000. Vote on governor and congressmen is little less. The scratching does not seem to have been very pronounced in any section. Republicans certainly gain one congressman.

Returns from 333 towns and precincts in Illinois, outside of the city of Chicago give a net republican gain of 3027, this indicates that Garfield's plurality in the state is 45,000. Nothing definite yet received from the close congressional districts. Some anxiety is yet felt for Davis in the second district, but democrats concede his election. Farwell in the third district runs ahead of the ticket in Lake county where he resides.

In three towns in Lake to hear from Garfield's majority is 1,17-; Farwell's majority 1,3-.

Chicago.—Returns from 577 towns and precincts outside of Chicago and Cook county, give a net republican gain of 3229. Including Cook county, the net republican gain in the state so far as heard from is over 14,000, which makes the majority in that section of the state, which has been heard from, and which is less than half the state, 34,000. At this rate there will be in the neighborhood of 45,000 majority in the state, and it may be considerably above that figure.

Chicago.—The city gives 5000 to 7000 republican majority. The county perhaps 10,000.

Chicago.—Following is the Tribune's estimate of the majorities in congressional districts, showing that republicans have gained one congressman from state and democrats have elected one in place of greenback republican:

- 1st Aldrich, rep., 4000, reelected.
- 2d Davis, rep., 3000, reelected.
- 3d Farwell, rep., 4300.
- 4th Sherwin, rep., 6000, reelected.
- 5th Hawk, rep., 6000, reelected.
- 6th Henderson, rep., 7000.
- 7th Cullen, rep., 2000.
- 8th Payson, rep., 1500.
- 9th, Lewis, rep., 700.
- 10th, Marsh, rep., 2000, re-elected.
- 11th, Singleton, dem., 3000, re-elected.
- 12th, Springer, dem., 2000, re-elected.
- 13th, Smith, rep., 1000, gain.
- 14th, Cannon, rep., 2500, re-elected.
- 15th, Moulton, dem., 1500, gain.
- 16th, Sparks, dem., 3000, re-elected.
- 17th, Morrison, dem., 1000, re-elected.
- 18th, Thomas, rep., 1800, re-elected.
- 19th, Townsend, dem., 3000, re-elected.

This shows a republican gain of one, and a greenback loss of one. The democrats remain unchanged, having gained one and lost another.

Chicago.—The city is complete and corrected so that final returns will hardly change the result. It shows, Garfield 42,971, Hancock 38,31-, Weaver 1,24-; Garfield's plurality 4,6-. On governor, Cullom 41,-134, Trumbull 35,69-; Cullom's majority 5405. On county vote it stands, Garfield 54,800, Hancock 4-,-309, Weaver 411; Garfield's plurality 10,577. On governor, Cullom 53,229, Trumbull 44,719; Cullom's majority 9120. The county and state candidates were all elected by majorities below the electoral ticket. The republicans gain two representatives in the state legislature and one senator. The democrats gain one representative. The gains of representatives are made at the expense of socialists. The congressional candidates in the first three districts ran very even. The greater interest was felt regarding the north side of the 3d district, where one or two wards made a strong movement against Farwell. He lost somewhat in them, but in other parts of the city and in the country where he resides, he gained so much as to put him ahead of the ticket.

The Inter-Ocean says there is a movement on foot to impeach Mayor Harrison for an alleged incendiary speech before the election and for alleged improprieties in connection with election matters.

Iowa.

In Iowa 115 towns show a republican net gain of 3391; 46 additional towns show a republican majority of 35,000.

Scattering returns from Iowa show a net republican gain over the vote for governor in 1879 of about 15 per cent. If this rate holds good in the state, Garfield's plurality over Hancock, will be 85,000.

Des Moines, Nov. 3.—The republican state committee and the State Register have additional returns from a good number of counties. They fully sustain the estimates of last night for 70,000 majority for Garfield over Hancock. All congressional districts in the state except the 6th give a large and certain majority for the republican candidates, Kasson in the 7th being over 8000 and probably 5000. The 6th is very close and doubtful. The State Register has returns from all counties but ... and gives ... 200 majority in that district, claims the election of Cutts by 100 majority.

Council Bluffs ... gain in county 750; Hepburn's majority in district for congress 5000 to 5000.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Returns received from Iowa by the state republican committee and the State Register up to to-night raises the majority of Garfield over Hancock, and indicates it will be 85,000. The republicans carry all congressional districts of the state, regarding the 6th by 10 majority for Cutts, and the 7th by 3550 for Kasson.

Michigan.

Detroit.—316 ... polling places reps. have 31,203 majority. ... concede the election of Lord in the 1st district and ... in the 5th.

Detroit.—Two hundred and fifty-three precincts, wards and townships in Michigan give Garfield 18,-979 majority. Garfield's majority in the state will probably reach 25,000 to 28,000. Nothing definite yet in the 1st and 3d congressional districts. Legislature strongly republican.

Wisconsin.

Milwaukee.—Mr. Deuster, democrat, for congress in the fourth district, is elected by 1400 majority. The towns in the state so far show a total net republican gain of 10,153.

Milwaukee.—Three hundred and forty-three towns, including the city of Milwaukee, give 3450 republican majority.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Later returns justify the estimate last night, that Wisconsin gives a republican majority of about thirty thousand. The republicans gain one congressman.

Minnesota

St. Paul.—Returns indicate that Minnesota gives a republican majority of 30,000. Dunnell may have 10,000 majority for congress; Strait 3000; Washburn 5000.

Minneapolis.—Returns as received indicate that Minnesota gives Garfield a majority of 25,000. Gen. Washburn, who is seated in the present congress was contested by Donnelly, is overwhelmingly elected, beating his competitor, Gen. Sibley by from 3000 to 5000. Washburn carries city and county by considerably over ... majority. It is presumed that his seat in the next congress will not be contested.

St. Paul.—Detail of congressional majorities up to date are as follows: 1st district, Dunnell, 5000; 2d district, Strait's majority 4000; 3d district, Washburn's majority, 5000. The legislature is republican by an increased majority.

Missouri.

St. Louis.—Post, Dispatch, republican, 5 of congressmen in the state. The republicans claim Van Horn in the 8th, where two democrats were running. Republicans gained considerably in the state.

St. Louis county probably republican.

St. Louis, Mo.—Almost complete returns of the city give Hancock a plurality of ... over Garfield, and for governor, a plurality of 534 and the balance of the state ticket pluralities ranging from 280 to 718 excepting for secretary of state, Broadwell, rep., for that office receiving a plurality of ... The city part of the first congressional district gives Fletcher, republican, about 2000, five counties outside of the city belonging to this district will probably give Clardy a democratic majority which will elect him by perhaps 2500 majority. Second district gives Thomas Allen, democrat, between 25,000 and 30,000 majority. Third district is very close and will probably require the official vote to settle it. Sessinghaus, republican, has about 150 majority in the city precincts, but eight precincts in the county will probably give Frost enough to elect him—say from 50 to 100 votes. Of the city ticket the republicans elect the sheriff.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan.—Returns elect all three republican congressmen and Garfield has the state by 50,000.

Nebraska.

Omaha.—Returns from state come in slowly and it is only a question of the size of majorities. Garfield will have about 25,000 and the state ticket about the same. Republicans have elected three-fourths of the legislature. Greenback vote diminished from last year.

Colorado

Denver, Nov. 3.—Forty-nine towns and precincts covering about half of the state, give Garfield 2860, majority. Balance of the State will probably increase these figures.

Denver, Col.—Returns from 74 towns and precincts comprising over half of the state and including this city and Leadville nearly complete, give Garfield 3101 majority, Pitkin, rep. for governor, 4000; Belford, rep. for congress, is 600 or 700 ahead of Garfield; legislature three-quarters republican. The above majority may be slightly decreased by later returns. This city gives Pitkin over 900 and Garfield 500 majority.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Returns from the fourth congressional district include all counties complete or closely estimated. Nearly complete figures, with the exception of Inyo, Merced and Los Angeles counties, which are not included, give Leach, democrat, 317 majority over Pacheco. Inyo gave Hayes 52 majority in 1876. Merced is expected to give 250 democratic majority. Los Angeles gives Pacheco 373 majority with six precincts to hear from. This leaves Leach 152 majority. Owing to uncertainty regarding the returns from Merced and Mono counties, on account of the presence of a greenback candidate and incomplete returns from some other counties, the district is in doubt, with chances against Pacheco.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Vote of the city complete: Garfield, 19,014; Hancock, 21,158; Weaver, 643. For congress—Davis, republican, 19,420; Rosecrans, democrat, 20,593; Maybell, greenback, 665.

GLOOM AND DESPAIR.

The Situation in New York—Complexion of the Next Congress.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

New York, Nov. 3.—The secretary of the republican national committee says: "The democrats claim the house, but have not got it. We will have a fair working majority. The democrats also claim the senate by a majority of 3. Notwithstanding the democratic claims, however, the republicans seem to have the house beyond a question, by a majority of at least 8. The senate, however, is in great doubt and so recognized by both sides. Democrats here, foreign and domestic, bear their defeat with a good deal of fortitude. The fact is, the result had been discounted many days ago. At the headquarters of the democratic congressional committee here, there has been a conspicuous absence of courage or confidence, since the defeat of the party in Indiana. Before that nearly a hundred hands had been employed in folding and forwarding campaign documents, but after the Indiana disaster the hands were discharged. Silence and gloom settled over what had been a hive of industry, and it was plain to outside observers that the democratic backbone was broken. To-day in conversation democrats are free to confess that they were fairly without hopes after the October gale. "It was Indiana that defeated Hancock," said a prominent democrat to-day. "It was a decision of the supreme court making it an October state that proved our destruction." Amid the wreck of all their hopes the democrats insist that had Indiana elected Landers in October, Hancock would have walked into the White House in March. In a private letter written here before the Indiana election Garfield said: "We lost Maine but we carry Indiana. Bull Run made Appomatox possible." Next to the loss of the presidency the democrats mourn the loss of the ablest men in the senate, Wallace, Eaton, Kernan, Thurman and McDonald all go out with the close of the short session. In speaking of this matter to-day a prominent democrat told your correspondent that with the exception of Bayard there were not on the democratic side four abler men than those who have been so summarily decapitated and whose places will be taken by republicans after March. Whether the senate will have a working majority of republicans is still a matter of doubt, but it looks much as if they would. Officials of the senate now in the city are very uneasy.

Dispatch from Chairman Jewell.

New York, Nov. 3, 1880.

To Hon. Joseph Simon, Portland, Or.: Have carried all the eastern states except New Jersey, which is in doubt. Carried lower house and probably senate. New York 40,000 republican majority. Democratic mayor elected only by 6,000.

MARSHALL JEWELL.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Feeling in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Among business men and real estate owners generally the result is more satisfactory than otherwise, the election of Hancock implying a complete change among government officials would have upset things here. Accordingly, during the past two months, business has been almost at a standstill. The air is filled with predictions and guesswork as to what will be the result of this sixth defeat of the national democratic party. Many think it will go by the board; others that it will gather itself together again and come smiling for the next conflict. On one point, however, members of both parties pretty well agree,—that the solid south will now be broken. Prominent democrats claim it is utterly impossible for the party to try to win general success in the north with the solid south millstone hanging to their necks. It is said if two or three southern states would swing into the republican party it would spike the biggest gun the republicans ever had.

Figures on Congress.

Washington, Nov. 3.—At the headquarters of the republican congressional committee to-night they claim a total of 150 republican members to the next house, which is a clear majority of 11, if the claims all hold good. Of this, however, there is great doubt. They claim a gain of one each in Massachusetts, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, two each in Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, and three in Tennessee. They concede the loss of one each in Nevada and California and three in New York. They also claim the senate by a majority of one. Leading republicans claim to have positive information that Mahone will act with them in the organization of the senate.

At the headquarters of the democratic congressional committee they do not concede the house to the republicans, but claim it by a narrow majority.

The following dispatch was received from Duncan S. Walker, of Des Moines: The contest in the seventh district has been persistently fought by the greenback party. Their candidate for president threw his whole weight into the scales, made three visits and numerous speeches. Some greenback members, including De La Matyr, of Indiana, went twice into and over the district. The principal republican speakers were employed elsewhere, and Kasson was obliged to conduct this canvass with great persistency. The result is a victory over Gen. Weaver, De La Matyr and greenbackers by over 3500 majority. Iowa sends a solid congressional delegation. Kansas—50,000 to 60,000 for Garfield.

New York.—Total city vote gives Grace 2904 majority for mayor.

A Southern Comment.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 3.—Commenting on the election the Constitution says: It is a culmination of a series of blunders beginning with the Potter committee and ending with the surrender of the party to the selfish whims of an element which has John Kelly for its commander-in-chief. It would appear that the line of sectionalism has been sharply drawn by the voters of the north, but there is nothing depressing in this. We are willing the north should draw the sectional line in politics if the south be permitted to draw the line with respect to the progress and improvements of those conditions and forces which make a people happy in their fields, their workshops and their homes. We have a prosperous future before us, and to this end we shall look intently. We have the cause of public education to promote and the welfare of a great and growing section to foster. The south expected a little more from Gen. Hancock's administration than it will ask from Gen. Garfield's. We want nothing more than simple, exact, absolute justice. If the new president owes nothing to the south, he at least owes something to the country, and we shall hope to see him cancel this debt by giving us an administration as fair, just and as clear as that of Mr. Hayes.

A Farmer's Offset.

[From the Detroit Free Press.]

A "hired man," who had been employed on a farm in this county for several months entered suit against his employer the other day for balance of wages, amounting, as he claimed, to $32. The suit was on trial in Justice Alloy yesterday, and it looked at first as if the plaintiff had a clear case. He gave dates and figures in a straightforward way, and seemed to be a very honest young man. When the farmer took the stand he said:

"I claim an offset for that $32. No man need sue me for what I honestly owe."

"What is your offset?" asked the lawyer.

"He's an unbeliever."

"In what?"

"Why, in the bible."

"What has that to do with your owing him $32?"

"It has a heap to do with it. I had six hands in my employ and we were rushing things when I hired this man. He hadn't been with us two days when they stopped the reaper in the middle of the afternoon to dispute about Daniel in the lion's den, and in three days we had a regular knockdown over the whale swallowing Jonah. The man who ran the mower got to arguing about Samson and drove over a stump and damaged the machine to the tune of $19, and the very next day my boy broke his leg while climbing a fence to hear and see the row which was started over the children of Israel going through the Red sea. It wasn't a week before my wife said she didn't believe Elijah was fed by the ravens and hang me if I didn't find myself growing weak on Noah and the flood. That's my offset, and if he was worth anything, I'd sue him for a thousand dollars beside."

The court reserved his decision for twenty-four hours.

A Baltimore paper says: "It is very bad form for gentlemen in society to talk of money matters." We suspect the Baltimore editor met his tailor in society, and was asked by the ill-mannered snob when it would be convenient for him to pay for his last suit of clothes.—Norristown Herald.

Wouldn't Trust the Banks.

[From the New York Times.]

An old farmer living near Petrolia, Pennsylvania, having made $100,000 in oil, refused to put faith in banks or to invest his money. He kept the rolls of greenbacks in his farm house secreted in boxes and trunks. The money became damp, mildewed and moldy. When he discovered the condition of his money, he took the notes from their hiding place and spread them in the sun about his orchard to dry. The spectacle of a fortune lying loose on the ground among the apple trees was witnessed by hundreds who were attracted to the farm by the singular proceeding. The money was thus exposed for two days, guarded by the farmer, his wife, daughter and hired man. Then it was again returned to the boxes. Three nights after the greenbacks were housed, the farmer woke up to find three masked men in his bed-room. They bound the old man and his family, and had discovered and secured $1000 of the hidden treasure when they were frightened away by the return of the hired man from Petrolia. Subsequently his house was broken into by three men wearing masks. The old man and his wife fought them until they were unconscious. In the struggle the masks were torn from the faces of two of the men and they were recognized. The neighbors went to the rescue, and the robbers were followed, but escaped to the woods. Three days afterward the two were captured. They have recently been sentenced to five years each in the penitentiary. The farmer still refuses to select any safer place of deposit for his wealth than in his own house.

THE GENERAL RESULT.

We have no special change to note in the news given yesterday. Dispatches are devoted chiefly to details. The republicans have certainly lost Nevada and about as certainly California. New Jersey is extremely close, but there is little doubt that it also has chosen Hancock electors. Three small northern states have therefore voted with the solid south, but by exceedingly slender majorities. New Jersey has always been democratic, and as it went for Tilden by over 12,000, it is not surprising that it should now vote for Hancock; though the same influences that gave New York to the republicans have pulled down the democratic majority in New Jersey almost to a minus quantity. It is not doubted that the talk about the Chinese, miserable drivel as it was, had its effect in California and Nevada. The Morey forgery was a villainous effort to provide "capital" with which to carry the Pacific states. While it was one of those things that could only disgust rational and respectable people, it nevertheless served as a means of raising a howl among the the class for whom it was intended. Perhaps it would not be just to assume that it carried California, but it is not unlikely that it brought the sand lot mob with more ardor to the embrace of the democratic party. The net result of the election is 213 electoral votes for Garfield and Arthur, and 156 electoral votes for Hancock and English. There seems to be no doubt that the republicans will have about eight majority in the next house of representatives, but the loss of Nevada, and perhaps of California, will prevent them from getting control of the senate. However, as a triumph the result is sufficiently complete for the republicans, and as a rout, it is sufficiently overwhelming to the democrats.

THE VOTE OF OREGON.

We have reports from most of the Willamette counties which confirm our supposition, stated yesterday, that the vote of Tuesday was materially less than it otherwise would have been in consequence of the heavy rain that fell all that day. The absence of many from the polls was noted in almost every precinct. We can have no doubt that the republicans lost heavily from this cause. Still the state is safely carried. We estimate the clear majority on this side of the Cascade mountains at 1200. In this estimate we include the southern counties and Lake with them. In the five counties east of the Cascade mountains the democratic majority is not likely to exceed 700, and will not exceed 800 at most. The electoral vote of Oregon seems to be good for Garfield and Arthur by 500, or nearly that figure. Allowing for all possible errors in estimates for parts of counties not yet reported, the republican majority can not fall below 300. We estimate republican majorities as follows: Benton, 30; Clackamas, 277; Coos and Curry, 40; Columbia, 75; Clatsop, 100; Douglas, 75; Grant, 40; Marion, 657; Multnomah, 482; Polk, 54; Tillamook, 65; Washington, 250; Yamhill, 122. Total republican majorities, 2277. Democratic majorities: Baker, 225; Jackson, 370; Josephine, 75; Lake, 150; Lane, 28; Linn, 274; Umatilla, 250; Union, 250; Wasco, 150. Total democratic majorities, 1772. Net republican majority, 505. Most of these figures are based on actual returns, and the final majority is as likely to exceed the above as to fall below it. For instance, we put Jackson at 370 democratic majority, but a dispatch says it will not exceed 300; while Douglas is hardly put high enough for the republicans, and Union is probably put rather high for the democrats. In any contingency we do not regard the state as in danger, though the majority is less than the republicans had reason [illegible]. The state is carried by just about [illegible] majority in Multnomah county.

SMALL FARMS AND LARGE.

The French are a nation of small farmers, and strikingly illustrate the economic truth that it is not the aggregate wealth of a nation that make a people rich, but the general diffusion of wealth. There are more land-owners in that country than in all the vast extent of the United States. Thousands of farms are under ten acres, and the majority under 20, and the cultivators of these little plats are free from debt and have plenty of ready money. In their possession of money wealth, the small farmers of some of the eastern counties of Pennsylvania compare well with the French. In that district the density of population and the extension of manufactories furnish a market at their doors. They fatten a few head of beef cattle, a score or two of hogs or a flock of sheep every winter, to supply the continually increasing consumption of meat, while their lands become rich and high-priced because of the large quantity of manure made in feeding stock. Besides his profits from stock, the small farmer gets handsome returns from his fruits and vegetables, poultry, butter, milk and eggs, and the result is that while no one is so wealthy that he can afford to disregard the small economies of life, almost every farmer has his little hoard invested in some form yielding annual dividends. Such is, or should be, the ideal farming community.

Human contiguity gives value to land and only subdivision into small holdings can insure continued fertility of the soil and permanent prosperity. The great bonanza wheat farms of Dakota and California have attracted a peculiar interest on account of their vast extent, their novelty, and the application of strict business methods to agriculture, but apart from the result of demonstrating the fertility of the soil and the ease and certainty with which crops can be grown and harvested on these treeless plains, they are not a desirable feature in any country, unless it can be shown what those immense cultivated tracts will shortly and inevitably yield to some economic law tending to secure subdivision and settlement by small proprietors, their further increase cannot be regarded with complacency by those whose pecuniary interests are not immediately involved in bonanza farming. Railroad corporations are now fully alive to the fact that the permanent location of large inhabitable tracts of land along these lines of road will soon begin to react disastrously upon their own interests. Country merchants in inchoate cities and towns already detect a malign influence in the presence of these big farms. A five-thousand acre farmer does not directly benefit the country tradesman as much as a struggling settler on a quarter section; while indirectly the presence of the former is an incalculable injury to his business, by crowding out fifty or more small farmers whose patronage he would be able to secure. The large farmer is practically his own storekeeper. His supplies are all purchased at wholesale rates and shipped in car lots, and he patronizes the local tradesman only to the extent of an occasional paper of tacks or other trifles overlooked in making up his order for the season's supplies.

To make anything like society utterly impossible, nothing more effective can be devised than these vast wheat plantations. On these farms of 4000 and 5000 acres five hands do all the work during five months of the year, while as many as 300 are employed in midsummer; there are no human habitations on the place except a residence for the superintendent and a boarding house for the men; women, children, neighborhood interests, and all the associations that cluster about the idea of a farm, are conspicuously absent. Such agricultural communities have many of the features of lonely mining camps, while they have in the season of active operations many of the sterner features of manufacturing communities—the order, the machinery, the minimum of expense and the maximum of product—without those pleasanter features, the schoolhouse, the church, the little workingman's library, the sewing circle, the cooking class, the line of promotion, the rise of the bright boy, and the steady workman, all the gentler manners which spring up about any spot where industry has a permanent abiding place. On the big farm there is no abiding place; life does not grow around winter firesides to settle and clarify through the disciplines of home; when the harvest is garnered the army of laborers are discharged, to become an army of tramps or what-not, and solitude reassorts its dominion over the vast stretches of prairie.

A great deal was said during the late canvass by demagogues of the unscrupulous sort to mislead working men. But our working classes are those who above all others should dread the change that was involved. It was demagogical agitation that frightened capital and threw thousands of men out of employment. It was the wisdom and steadiness of republican administration that restored confidence and renewed business, set the rolling mills in motion and revived every industry of the country. Under republican rule the war was conducted to a successful issue; the country safely carried through the panic following the war, its credit maintained and its industries protected; and its four per cent bonds placed at a premium. Under democratic administration slavery was brought into competition with free labor; our bonds bearing twelve per cent interest were at a discount; and the party held together by the cohesive power of public plunder until the country was rushed into civil war with its fearful consequences, because the free men of the north sought and obtained a voice in a government which had been run solely in the interests of a southern aristocracy. About the last thing that any thinking man who supports himself by labor in any form should do would be to support a party which has this record and whose ranks contain about all the pestilent agitators in the country. And the elections have shown that the true workingmen of the country take about this view of it.

Owing, perhaps, to a dearth of topics, a writer in a Parisian paper discourses upon genius and beards and makes the subject anything but uninteresting. He challenges proof that, apart from a very few exceptions, no great orator ever wore beard or mustache. Among eminent French speakers and statesmen, Mirabeau, Danton, Vergniaud, Berryer, Foy, Manuel, Chateaubriand, De Broglie, Molé, Odillon Barrot, Casimir Perier, Guizot, Thiers and Montalembert all shaved. The mustache is thought to be a distinctive military adornment, yet it was not worn by Alexander, Cæsar, Pompey, Trajan nor Napoleon. Revolutionists are popularly supposed to be marked by unkempt beards; yet Robespierre, Marat, Saint-Just and Herbert were carefully shaven. Of French writers and poets, Moliere and Corneille wore the Richelieu mustache; but Racine, Pascal, La Fontaine, Boileau, La Bruyere, Voltaire, Rousseau, Diderot, Montesquieu and all the thinkers and savants of the eighteenth century indulged in a clean shave. So did Dante, Byron, Petrarch, Shelley, Pope, Addison, Sheridan, Goldsmith, Swift, Johnson, Fielding, Richardson, Pitt, Burke and Fox. One fact, however, the writer appears to overlook; and that is that very few men of any profession permitted their beards to grow in the times of a great majority of the celebrities enumerated above. In the present generation a large majority—indeed, at least nine-tenths—of men wear beards.

All day yesterday there was repetition of the foolish and utterly useless expedient of posting pretended dispatches which claimed that the state of New York, in spite of all reports to the contrary was securely democratic. The majority was placed at 5000, and the claim was backed up by the statement that "all indications point to a handsome democratic victory in the state." There were also intimations that appeal would be taken to congress to count the vote of New York for Hancock, on the ground of "fraud." An obscure and irresponsible evening paper here published a long pretended dispatch last night, in which this stuff was set out elaborately as "news." No doubt it will appear this morning in the other alleged newspaper published in the Bourbon interest here. Newspapers like these are truly a wonderful convenience to the public. Strange as it may appear, there were partisans so eager to believe what was reported that they staked their money very freely on the truth of these bogus statements.

From the scenes of Tuesday at the polls in Portland it ought to be apparent to every citizen that if we are to have honest elections a registry law is indispensable. Such a law would have ruled out not less than five hundred votes cast in the city in the late election. A registry law is a form of attestation to which no honest citizen can object. When the elector goes to register he is obliged to furnish satisfactory evidence that he is entitled to vote. Then if he succeeds by false representations in getting on the register there is a record which can be followed till he is punished. Such a law must be had, or the elective franchise in this city will be practically wrested ere long from our actual citizens and turned over to a rabble of vagabonds, like that dregs, feculence and bilge-water of population that appeared on our streets and about the polls on Tuesday, driving respectable citizens to more quiet precincts to vote. A registry law is the only possible guarantee of honest elections.

The expedient of seizing an island in the Levant, with which Turkey was recently threatened, is a repetition of history, for the same thing was tried against her with marked success 400 years ago. The knights of St. John fortified the island of Rhodes, and held it through forty-two years of almost unbroken warfare, making such havoc with their privateers that it became a proverb that "the black cross of Rhodes had eclipsed the crescent of Stamboul." Solyman the Magnificent at last dispatched a vast armament against them, with orders to destroy them at any cost. After three days and nights of fighting, the citadel was stormed, but with such fearful loss to the Turks that Mustapah Pasha was glad to let the garrison march out with the honors of war. When reproached by the sultan for such lenity, he made the magnificent reply: "Commander of the Faithful, had I not done so, the Christian dogs would have left no one alive to announce their defeat."

---

California has gone democratic by a small majority. The sand lot element in San Francisco went solid for the democratic party, its natural affinity. Nevada is also democratic. But Nevada is only a mere bonanza borough, the property of any mining speculator who happens for the time to be in the ascendant. James G. Fair resolved to go to the United States senate, as William Sharon had done before him, and the little borough simply registers his will.

The bogus dispatches received here pretend that a democratic congress will count the vote of New York for Hancock anyhow. Probably not. There has been one rebellion against the result of an election, and the chastisement of that rebellion is a lesson not to be forgotten for a century at least.

Had General Hancock studied the wisdom of the sages it might have been far better for him. He would have learned from Abraham Lincoln that the man who spells negro with an i and two g's will never be president of the United States.

There is no doubt of the election of Brents as delegate to congress for Washington territory. It is difficult as yet to form an approximate estimate of his majority, but probably it will not be less than 800.

MORE PILOTS AND ANOTHER TUG BOAT.

An Important Enterprise.

Following the trail of certain vague rumors last evening our reporter reached their fountain head. The following may be set down as facts concerning a new company of pilots and another steam tug for the mouth of the Columbia. A company of experienced and energetic men backed by [illegible] have entered into an agreement to furnish an additional and much needed steam tug and pilot facilities for our gateway to the sea, whereby the present delays may be in a measure diminished. The gentlemen have been before the pilot commissioners and have received commissions to serve as pilots, and are preparing to enter this service with their own steamer—staunch and fully equipped—probably within the next two months.

For the information of the public it may be proper to state that these gentlemen do not engage in this undertaking in any boasting spirit of opposition to existing workers; they simply recognize the widespread and steadily increasing demands of our growing commerce for additional workers and facilities, and intend to respond to that claim, confidently trusting that their efforts to meet ships on their arrival outside and the prompt attention to vessels desiring to be towed to sea will be rewarded with a fair proportion of patronage. All friends of our commerce, as dependent on water transportation and seriously harmed by interruptions from whatever cause, can have but one idea respecting any well organized enterprise of this nature. Names and further details will be forthcoming in due season.

Catarrhal

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and usually constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

PATRONIZE
HOME INDUSTRIES!

PIONEER
White Lead!

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE PREFERRED TO ALL OTHERS:

First—It is STRICTLY PURE. It is WHITER, is FINER GROUND, is FRESH, has BETTER COVERING POWER, is MORE DURABLE and is LOWER PRICED than any foreign or imported brands.

The IMPORTED LEADS are OLD, are DRY and HARD, COVERED WITH SKINS, The OIL IS SOAKED INTO THE WOOD, and a very LARGE QUANTITY OF OIL, which is HIGHER COST than the Lead, MUST BE ADDED to make them fit for use, and thus making it cost, at even market prices, at least 10 per cent. more than the PIONEER.

Second—The PIONEER LEAD is strictly a HOME MANUFACTURE. EVERY DOLLAR SPENT IN ITS MANUFACTURE IS DISTRIBUTED ON THIS COAST to the MINERS, SMELTERS and REFINERS. MECHANICS, FARMERS AND LABORERS.

The LEAD ORE is mined on this coast.

The PIG LEAD is smelted and refined on this coast.

The POTS, MACHINERY and other appliances are made on this coast.

The MECHANICS and LABORERS are our own population.

The SEED from which the OIL is extracted is GROWN on this coast.

The OIL is MANUFACTURED on this coast by the PACIFIC OIL WORKS, and of a quality superior to any made elsewhere. GUARANTEED PURE and FREE from ADULTERATION with cotton seed, mustard seed and Fish Oil, SO COMMON with ALL THE EASTERN OILS IMPORTED.

The manufacture of the PIONEER WHITE LEAD EMPLOYS constantly ONE HUNDRED MEN.

The manufacture of the Oil by the PACIFIC OIL WORKS EMPLOYS constantly FIFTY MEN.

THE MINING, SMELTING, REFINING, FOUNDRIES, MACHINE & IRON WORKS, POTTERIES, FARMERS and other dependencies, EMPLOY, in addition, an ARMY OF MEN, all CONSUMERS, contributing to each other's welfare.

The FOREIGN or IMPORTED BRANDS of Lead and Oil CONTRIBUTE NOTHING to the WELFARE or PROSPERITY of THIS COMMUNITY; on the contrary, the PATRONAGE OF THEM results in the RETIREMENT from the State of YOUR CAPITAL, and DEPRIVES THE MANY classes aforementioned of SUPPORT.

Every dollar spent for HOME MANUFACTURES, and one so essentially a home manufacture as the PIONEER WHITE LEAD, ADDS to the DEVELOPMENT and WEALTH of the COAST, and is a PUBLIC GOOD.

GENERAL NOTES FROM ASTORIA.

[REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

ASTORIA, OGN., Nov. 2, 1880.

A continued strong southwest wind has raised an ugly bar, and the ships Oasis and Cultwater and the bark San Luis remain at anchor at Baker's bay, waiting a favorable opportunity to put to sea. The ship Red Cross completed her cargo to-day and is ready to clear.

Election day has come and gone, and to the credit of Astoria be it said that notwithstanding the interest of both political parties in the result of this election far exceeded that of any similar contest held in this city, no breach of the peace occurred, perfect order was maintained and the sovereign people rejoiced in a "free ballot and a fair count."

On the evening preceding election day the republicans arranged for a torch-light procession, preparatory to repairing to Liberty hall to hear the last political speeches of the campaign, from the old republican war-horse, Hon. J. F. Caples, and the equally zealous Hon. W. D. Hare. Three hundred torches were borne aloft in the procession, intermingled with a variety of appropriate transparancies, and the numbers and enthusiasm of the individuals who participated in it was an unerring indication of the certain republican victory in this city which was to follow on the morrow, and of which our telegraphic dispatches have already advised THE OREGONIAN.

Lucky is the man that won a hat on the election, and happy will he feel if he gets it of Woods, the Hatter.

THE BONANZA MINES.

It is an open secret that unless new discoveries of ore are made in these mines that their working will have to be abandoned, and then the question arises whether more money has been taken from them than has been put in. But no such question of comparative benefits can arise in connection with the Oregon Kidney Tea, for every dollar put into that has produced a thousand dollars worth of good to the victims of backache and kidney troubles, as their unanimous testimony will show. Sold in all the stores.

GREAT BARGAINS

In Stationery, Books (English and German), Blank Books, Notions and Fancy Goods, at C. v. Nientzieger-ode's new stand, No. 231 First street. Periodicals and New papers.

Parties declining housekeeping, who want their household goods sold at auction or private sale, will do well to call on T. J. O'Connor, 64 First street.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. EXTENSIVE WHARF IMPROVEMENTS.

The well known Ainsworth steamship wharf is undergoing extensive repairs, enlargement and extension. About thirty feet in width on the river front has been added to the old wharf. This space was sorely needed. It is to be floored over and will add greatly to the facilities of unloading. At the south point, as soon as this improvement is completed, which will be at the latter end of this week—the carpenters will push forward an addition of 250 feet by 100 feet at the northern end of the old wharf. Piles are being driven for the foundation at this time.

The Oregon Railway & Navigation company will then have about half a mile of wharf accommodations on the Willamette including the beautiful Ainsworth wharf, where their river steamers now land.

NEW WOOD YARD.

At the foot of E street, on the south end of the gas wharf, a steam saw is being set up by Mr. J. Sorenson, who is about to establish a new and much needed wood yard, at the north end of our city.

TO SAIL.

The British bark Elbock, Capt. Alex. Swelton lawsk, with flour, wheat and Oregon preserved fruits, sails for Liverpool direct on Friday.

The bark Bellona, lying at the foot of Salmon street, has about completed her loading, and will leave to-morrow or next day for Europe.

Woods, the Hatter, will be as busy as a bee for the next two weeks furnishing hats that were lost and won on the election.

CARPE DIEM.

[illegible]

THE CENSUS AND MEAT PRODUCTION.

The [illegible] is [illegible] to deal with the great and interesting industry of this country in a valuable way, we learn from an interview in the New York Evening Post. Gen. Walker, superintendent of the census, appointed Mr. Clarence Gordon as an expert to gather facts of importance in regard to the production, transportation and export of [illegible] of sheep and swine and [illegible] cattle. He began his task [illegible] last August, and expects to [illegible] his report to Gen. Walker in about a year from the present time. With his assistants, who are now at work in various parts of the country, he had already gathered an immense mass of information covering Texas, the Indian territory, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada and Florida — the latter being really a grazing state, though this was not generally understood. He [illegible] that it was his duty to organize the work in each state, and that his assistants had then attended to the minor details. About the middle of July he will start for an official tour through Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington territory, Oregon and California, from which he will return, probably, by way of Arizona and New Mexico.

In regard to the character of his investigations Mr. Gordon said that he aimed to trace the whole system of meat production in this country from the time when the animals were on the hoof to the moment when the flesh was ready for cooking, either here or abroad. An interesting feature of the examination was in respect to the origin of the grazing business in each state and territory — whence the cattle were derived, and why their breeding and pasturage had attracted the special attention of settlers. In some cases in the far west the work of stock-raising had grown to huge proportions from the fact that it had been necessary for some of the early trains of immigrants to abandon a part of their cattle, which were afterward found to be thriving in a semi-wild state on the herbage supplied by the prairies.

During the last few years the improvements in every branch of meat production have been extraordinary. On the average a steer now weighs as much at three years of age as one formerly did at four years. The work of fattening hogs is now so well understood that the animals are usually killed when 10 months old, whereas the expense of their keep used to last for several years before they were ready for the market. The quality of the pork has improved also. Then many advances have been made in the business of sheep raising, for mutton in some regions and for wool in others.

Along with the examination of the different methods practised by graziers, etc., a careful study is made by the special agent and his assistant of the comparative facilities for stock raising in different parts of the country — the character and abundance of grasses, the supply and quality of water, the climate in summer and winter, the occurrence of drouths, and the amount of stock already kept in the various districts. In regard to herbage, it is found that forage plants which are very nutritious in certain places are less so in others, owing to the effect of climate, etc. Efforts will be made to ascertain the true value of different kinds of forage, and also to learn whether certain plants reputed poisonous are so in reality, or whether their ill name has been caused by the physical condition of certain animals at the time of eating the same. Special attention has been or will be paid to comparatively unsettled regions, concerning which the present supply of information is very meager, such as the northwestern part of Nevada, southern Montana, the northeastern part of Wyoming, and the "pan handle" of Texas.

The exports from this country to Europe of live cattle and canned or preserved meats are enormous, and are constantly increasing. A single firm in Chicago is said to have supplied all the canned meats consumed by the English army in the Zulu war. American meat is sent to almost every part of the world, and the methods of preserving it are undergoing constant improvement. The refrigerating process for keeping meat fresh is of great importance, and the shipment of live cattle to England is another prominent feature of the export trade. The methods of transporting cattle by rail and in vessels, the percentage of losses, etc., are among the objects which engage the attention of Mr. Gordon and his assistants.

As the large graziers are constantly on the outlook for fresh feeding grounds it is believed that the statistics of the forthcoming report in regard to herbage, water, climate, etc., will be of much value to persons already engaged in the business of stock raising, as well as to those who are thinking of embarking in the occupation. The enormous drives of cattle and sheep to new grazing grounds, sometimes in another state or territory, and the manner in which they are conducted, form an interesting subject for examination. The correct enumeration of the cattle, sheep, etc., in the different states is, of course, a difficult task, but Mr. Gordon thinks that the figures will far surpass in accuracy anything of the sort ever attempted before. There is a good system of agricultural statistics in Colorado, in Nebraska and in the organized parts of Kansas, but otherwise in the western states the county returns, etc., are generally very incomplete. In all cases the local statistics are carefully revised by the special agent and his deputies.

Mr. Gordon said that Montana would receive very close attention, as it possessed many inducements for settlers, and bade fair to be a great grazing center. The country there was excellent for raising both cattle and sheep. In this connection he referred to the report that Lord Dunmore had obtained 80,000 acres of land in Montana, and had bought 30,000 head of Texas cattle as the nucleus of a herd to be improved by imported bulls, with the intention of sending meat directly to the London market. New Mexico was spoken of as an excellent sheep region, where some persons owned flocks of 100,000 each, and where even the Navajo Indians kept great numbers.

While the construction of new railroads has stimulated stock-raising by opening markets to the graziers, and the foreign demand has had a very important effect on the business, the development of mines in the west, by attracting great numbers of miners and others to the camps and new settlements, has created a local demand for meats, which has also tended to increase production.

A RICH HAT STORY.

[From the Little Rock Gazette.]

Probably the meanest trick that was ever played on a white man was played last week in this city, and the fact there is no vigilance committee here is the only reason the perpetrators of the trick are alive. A business man had purchased a new stiff hat, and he went into a saloon with a half dozen friends to [illegible] the hat on his head. They all took beer and passed the hat around so all could see it. One of the meanest men that ever held a county office went to the bar-tender and had a thin slice of limburger cheese cut off, and when the party were looking at the frescoed ceiling through beer glasses, this wicked person slipped the cheese under the sweat-leather of the hat, and the man put it on and walked out. The man who owned the hat is one of your nervous people who is always complaining of being sick, and who feels as though some dreadful disease was going to take possession of him and carry him off. He went back to his place of business, took off his hat and laid it on the table, and proceeded to answer some letters. He thought he detected a smell, and when his partner asked him if he didn't feel sick, he said he believed he did. A clerk said it was evident that somebody's feet needed washing. The man turned pale, and said he guessed he would go home.

He met a man on the sidewalk who said the air was full of miasma, and in the street car a man who sat next to him moved to the end of the car and asked if he had just come from Chicago. The man with the hat said he had not, when the stranger said they were having a great deal of small pox there, and he guessed he would get out and walk, and he pulled the bell and jumped off. The cold perspiration broke out on the face of the man with the new hat, and he took it off to wipe his face, when the whole piece of cheese seemed to roll over and breathe, and the man got the full benefit of it and he came near fainting away. He got home and his wife met him and asked him what was the matter. He said he believed mortification had set in and she took one whiff as he took off his hat and she said she should think it had. "Where did you get into it?" she asked. "Get into it?" said the man. "I have not got into anything, but some deadly disease has got hold of me and I shall not live." She told him if any disease that smelled like that [illegible] hold of him and was to become chronic she felt as though he would be a burden to himself if he lived very long. She got his clothes off, soaked his feet in mustard water and he slept. The hat was lying on the centre-table and the children would come in and get a smell of it and look at each other with reproachful glances and [illegible] and play. The man slept and dreamed that a small pox flag was hung in front of his house and that he was riding in a butcher wagon to the pesthouse. The woman sent for a doctor, and when the man of pills arrived she told him all about the case. The doctor picked up the patient's new hat, tried it on and got a smell. He said the hat was [illegible] before it was tried. The doctor and the wife held a post-mortem examination of the hat and found the slice of limburger. [illegible] The patient [illegible] the doctor asked if his worldly affairs were in a satisfactory condition. He gasped that they were. The doctor asked if he had made his will. He said he had not, but [illegible] a lawyer sent for at once. The doctor [illegible] he was prepared to die. The patient [illegible] The doctor then took the limburger cheese [illegible] and showed the sick man [illegible] in the city. The [illegible] and called for his new hat [illegible] The last we saw of him [illegible] was that [illegible] of cheese in his hat lining.

The World's Coffee Production.

[From the London Times.]

The four great coffee countries of the world are Brazil, Java, Sumatra and Ceylon. The Brazilian [illegible] for 1879 show the Brazil [illegible] of the most extraordinary quantity of beans. Hitherto 250,000 tons had been considered as a good yearly figure for Brazil; last year the export amounted to 272,000 tons. But the consumption of coffee in the country itself now amounts to 40,000 tons, raising the total yearly production of Brazil to 322,000 tons. Fortunately for the planters in other parts of the world, coffee has grown into a necessity in the United States, and thanks to this its price has risen. Although the soil of Brazil, especially for coffee culture, is very extensive, yet the difficulty of obtaining labor daily becomes greater, and this renders it doubtful whether the above figure can be much exceeded. The crop in Java and Sumatra was estimated at 94,000 tons for export; the consumption of the inhabitants, although the population is double that of Brazil, is not half of that of the latter country. The production in Ceylon, though greater than that of 1878, shows a falling off when compared with former years; there were in all 41,209 tons exported from the island, the native consumption being very small. Coffee is, besides, grown in Central America, in several of the South American Republics, in the British and other colonies of the West Indies, in Hayti, Cuba, Porto Rico, Arabia, Mauritius, Reunion, and along the northeast coast of Africa, in Liberia, and the African West Coast, in Manilla, Celebes, and several of the islands of the Pacific, and, lastly, in British India. But the total production of all these regions does not reach half of the export of the four chief countries named above.

Prices in the local market have advanced 1@2½ cents per cental and is freely quoted at $1 45.

THE GENUINE

CELEBRATED

LIVER PILLS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

[illegible]

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

LANDS,

PEN D'OREILLE DIVISION

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

Is now offering for sale nearly

5,000,000

Acres of its lands in the Pen d'Oreille Division, in Eastern Washington, which are composed of the odd numbered sections for forty miles on each side of the railroad as now located from the mouth of Snake River, in Washington Territory, to Lake Pen d'Oreille, in Idaho. These lands, of unexcelled fertility, and adapted to farming on any scale that may be desired, are offered by the Railroad Company at such prices and terms as cannot fail to induce settlement and cultivation, ensuring a rapid growth in population of the country, and increase in value to those who now purchase.

The following Resolution of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, passed November 1?th, 1879, fixes the cash price of lands to actual settlers at two dollars and sixty cents per acre, which it is believed is a lower price than has ever been voluntarily placed upon its lands by any land grant company. This is, in fact, cheaper than the settler can purchase the same class of land of the Government under the preemption law, for the expense attending the making of final proof, and the journey to the land office which he must necessarily make in order to complete his entry, is more than the ten cents per acre added to the government price by the Railroad Company.

"Resolved, That the Agricultural lands of the Company west of the Missouri river to Puget Sound shall be offered for sale to actual settlers at government price of $2.50 per acre, with an addition thereto of ten cents per acre to be paid to the Company to reimburse it for the cost of selecting, surveying and conveying said land.

"This resolution does not apply to lands, nor to lands chiefly valuable for timber, nor to lands required for town sites or suitable for manufacturing sites, nor in regions where water is scarce to lands containing springs or other natural supply, where it shall be for the interest of settlers at large that such water privileges shall not be exclusively held or controlled by any individual, or to the lands required for the use of the Company in connection with the operation of the road."

To persons wishing to purchase on time, the remarkably low price of four dollars per acre is given on the following terms: one-tenth cash at time of purchase, the balance in four equal yearly payments at 7 per cent. interest. The above price for the lands is adopted for the present, but may be subject to change in the future.
